

the most beautiful land

Carlos E. Escalona (Kako)

1. The mountain

Escambray, Sancti Spiritus

Baracoa, Guantánamo

Turquino peak, Santiago de Cuba

2. The river

El Nicho, Cienfuegos

Baracoa, Guantánamo

Nengoa, Cienfuegos

3. The forest

El Nicho, Cienfuegos

Topes de Collantes, Sancti Spíritus

Escambray, Cienfuegos

4. The valley

Sugar Mills valley Sancti Spíritus

road, Camagüey

Viñales, Pinar del Río

5. The sea

Nuevitas bay, Camagüey

Malecón, Havana

bridge, Ciego de Ávila

Photographer, documentarian, professor. Received as Bachelor in Cinematography at Arts University of Havana (ISA) on 2008. Contributes to “The Stand Global”, “Progreso Semanal”, “OnCuba” and Radio Nederland Wereldomroep.

Exhibitor at 12th Biennial of Havana with “Gente de Cocodrilos” (“People of Cocodrilos”). 1st place in Landscape in “Naturaleza Digital 2014” nature photography contest.

Director of Photography in documentary movies “She Works” (2006), “South of Matahambre” (2008) y “People of Cocodrilos” (2013).

From 2012 has taught the workshop “Photojournalism and Social Documentary” at ISA, University of Havana (UH) and American University of Washington D.C (AU). Lecturer in photography for AU, Nebraska-Lincoln University, New Jersey College, UH, ISA, School of Creative Photography of Havana.

Email: escalona.marti@gmail.com.

Cell / Home: +535-246 3323 / +537-203 6725

Blog “Kilómetro Cero”: <http://deaviaje.wordpress.com/>

Facebook: <https://www.facebook.com/Kako.Escalona>

Instagram: <http://instagram.com/kakoescalona/>